Httpprattrojandownload is a website about the terrible awakening of 3,000 people that are now terrified that they downloaded an episode of Rick and Morty that will change their lives. You are one of these people. The series finale for Season 3 was leaked online on the day it aired, causing many viewers to binge-watch all weekend. If you're one of these people, too—or if you have seen this episode before but don't remember—you may be experiencing some misgivings about your life choices at the moment. It's time to stop panicking. The world is safe. This Rick and Morty episode was leaked online because of a mistake made by Adult Swim's advertising firm, Turner Broadcasting System. The company allowed the final episode to be accidentally aired on Cartoon Network early in Australia, which is five hours ahead of the Eastern time zone during daylight savings time right now. It was supposed to air at 11 PM EST, but thanks to the blunder, Australians were able to watch it at 2 PM their local time. This happened because Turner Broadcasting System used a streaming service called Grooveshark that didn't have any restrictions on it—and Grooveshark doesn't have any restrictions on Australia either. Whoops. You'll notice a quote from a famous philosopher at the beginning of this article. It's from an episode of Rick and Morty called "Lawnmower Dog". In that episode, Rick mentions the philosopher Schopenhauer. In an attempt to prove that he has a better intellect than most people think he does, Rick quotes Schopenhauer. All quotes from the philosopher Schopenhauer: "Man is thinnest of all things, and therefore densest"—"Where there is no sensation, there is no pain"—"We need an object—a thing—outside ourselves if we are to be anything at all. All that exists, exists only to itself." If you have or haven't seen the episode that was leaked, there are other Rick and Morty episodes you can watch online. The first season of Rick and Morty is on Hulu right now. You can watch "Lawnmower Dog" there if you want to see the quote, but you'll notice it's not available on Netflix because it's not one of the most popular episodes. Which means this leak is actually pretty good for ratings. If this leak gets Rick and Morty into the top five trending topics like PewDiePie then this could be a very lucrative mistake for Adult Swim. Another good place to watch Rick and Morty is on AdultSwim.com. They even have an app, but it's only available in the United States. If you live in the United States, get the app for free on iTunes or get it on Google Play. If you're not in the US, get a VPN—you can get one for free online—and then you'll be able to watch the app just like Americans do. Get your VPN here if you don't know how to get one. If you haven't heard of all these places to watch Rick and Morty yet, don't worry about it because they're not important right now. The point is that there are plenty of real ways to watch this show online without getting fired or having your internet cut off because of copyright infringement laws.
